A Roadmap to Success:

How I Overcame ADHD and Discovered My True Potential

A Presentation by

Scott Darren Schachter, Mental Health Advocate

Thursday, February 9, 2017 at 7:30 pm

Finley Middle School

The presentation aims to empower young children and adolescents dealing with ADHD and learning disabilities (LD)

- Parents will gain meaningful insight on how to cope with their children's learning and attention issues
- Hear a personal perspective on what it feels like to grow up with ADHD and a LD
- Gain insight on transitioning to college & workplace and best environments
- Learn about resources for those with ADHD and LD

Children grades 4 and up encouraged to attend

Mr. Scott Darren Schachter is a Mental Health Advocate. He recently presented at NYIT Old Westbury and at the Bridging the Gaps Conference at The Nassau University Medical Center, where he discussed his own personal journey of living with ADHD and learning disabilities.
