The Guidance Department will be hosting College Application Week! We will be providing opportunities for all students to learn about college options and even apply! Each day a different event is scheduled. Please see your counselor for a permission slip to attend the events listed below.

Monday 10/22: LIU Post will be meeting with 9-12th graders in Room 140 to discuss the college search and application process.

Tuesday 10/23: The annual Mini College Fair will be held in the Large Cafeteria for 11th and 12th graders. 50+ colleges will be in attendance.

Wednesday 10/24: Suffolk County Community College will be meeting with 12th graders in Room 140 to present and conduct an onsite application review.

Thursday 10/25: St. Joseph's College will be meeting with 9-12th graders in Room 140 to discuss the college search and application process.

Friday 10/26: Nassau Community College will be meeting with 12th graders in Room 140 to present and conduct an onsite application review.

Counselors will escort ENL students to the College Diversity Summit at SUNY Farmingdale State College.

Additionally, the school counselors will be staffing the computer labs throughout the lunch periods every day to help seniors apply to colleges, register for the SAT/ACT, apply for financial aid and more!

We will have prizes for all students who participate!
Including college sweatshirts, t-shirts, mugs, backpacks etc!
All students must sign up in advance with their school counselor!!!
