Statement of Understanding

I, _____, have read and (Print your name)

understand the criteria and selection procedures for induction into the National Honor Society. I realize that decisions made by the Faculty Council Membership Selection Committee are final. I understand that there is no presumed entitlement to membership in the National Honor Society; it is an honor that is bestowed upon students who are outstanding in all four areas of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. I fully understand the student responsibilities to maintain membership which include maintaining my academic average, attending meetings regularly, paying dues, raising funds for the James Loebell Scholarship, giving service to the school, giving service to the community, and demonstrating exemplary character in the school and the community. I hereby wish to be considered for membership into the National Honor Society.
