

Charlie Kaye Scholarship Fund for Music

The Charlie Kaye Scholarship is a competitive scholarship for Suffolk County High School Graduating Seniors who are considering furthering their education in music. One award of $300 will be given in 2011, 2012 and 2013. This scholarship was established by The Friends and Family of Charlie Kaye and is intended for a Suffolk County High School Graduating Senior who shows exceptional promise in music. Based on the evaluation of a submitted DVD portfolio and essay, the Scholarship Committee will select one (1) award winner each year.

Applying for the Charlie Kaye Scholarship Fund for Percussion

Prospective students who have pursued a strong interest in music throughout high school and especially those who are considering furthering their education in music are encouraged to make an application for this award. The deadline is no later than April 30, 2012 (this is not a postmark deadline).

The portfolio must consist of the following:

1. Three to five works that demonstrate the student's range of proficiencies and best document the depth and breadth of an applicant's potential in music. Portfolio must be in DVD format. Please label length and title of work.
2. A typed, double-spaced, one-page statement indicating the student's desire to pursue the art scholarship competition and future goals as they relate to music
3. Completed Charlie Kaye Scholarship Fund for Music application form, available in PDF format at www.huntingtonarts.org

The portfolio must demonstrate a student's:

1. Command of the formal elements of music within the appropriate contexts
2. Ability to establish personal criteria, set goals, and pursue independent creative production
3. Breadth and depth of technical skill in a specific discipline
4. Ability to present finished musical pieces for public review in a digital format

The portfolio should be sent to the Charlie Kaye Scholarship Fund for Music, Huntington Arts Council, 213 Main Street, Huntington, NY 11743.

Submitted application materials including portfolio in DVD format will be reviewed and rated by our Scholarship Committee. The Huntington Arts Council cannot accept attendance at a live performance as part of the application process.

The student who applies for this scholarship should have a serious intention to consider a major in the area of music; however, application for this scholarship is not a binding commitment to become a music major if a student determines later that another major is more suitable.

Scholarship applicants should follow the application process outlined above.

The application materials must reach the Huntington Arts Council no later than April 30, 2012. Questions? Students who have questions about submitting to the Charlie Kaye Scholarship Fund for Music should contact Peggy Low, Arts in Education Coordinator, 631.271.8423 ext. 14 or artsined@huntingtonarts.org.
