Upcoming Huntington Historical Society Lectures

2011 SPRING CONKLIN LECTURE SERIES:

“THE GOLDEN AGE OF PIRACY”
By: Michael Goudket

Thursday, March 17 at 2 p.m.
David Conklin Farmhouse Museum Barn
2 High Street, Huntington Village

1:30 p.m. - Refreshments
2 p.m. - Lecture

Michael Goudket will discuss “The Golden Age of Piracy” with links to Captain Kidd’s treasure and other pirate activities on Long Island both real and legendary. Authentic Pirate grog will be served!

The Conklin Barn is located at 2 High Street at the intersection of New York Avenue in Huntington Village.

GENEALOGY WORKSHOP:

“What’s New At The National Archives”
By Dorothy Dougherty,
Public Programs Specialist for the National Archives, New York

Wednesday, March 23 at 7 p.m.
Huntington Public Library
338 Main Street, Huntington

The program will cover the availability of over 300,000 case files of alien residents born before 1909 which are stored in Kansas City and the Alien Statement Records of World War II male aliens subject to service, which are located in the National Archives of New York City. The lecture will indicate how to access them for genealogical research. In addition she will conclude the lecture with an overview of NARA’s Online Public Access Tool (released December 2010) - the centralized, streamlined means of searching multiple National Archives resources at once.