

THE HUNTINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Presents

ANNUAL SHEEP TO SHAWL FESTIVAL

From: The Huntington Historical Society

Contact: Cathi Horowitz
631-427-7045 Ext 403

Event: SHEEP TO SHAWL FESTIVAL

Date: Sunday, May 6, 2012
Noon – 4:00 PM

Location: Dr. Daniel W. Kissam House Museum
434 Park Avenue, Huntington

Admission: Free

The Huntington Historical Society is pleased to present its annual SHEEP TO SHAWL FESTIVAL on Sunday May 6th from noon to 4:00 PM on the grounds of the Dr. Daniel W. Kissam House Museum, 434 Park Avenue, Huntington.

Celebrate spring as we present sheep shearing, llamas, angoras and other seasonal delights throughout the event. Enjoy traditional textile demonstrations such as weaving, spinning, rug hooking, felting, and lace making. Children can create old fashioned crafts and play time honored games all day long. Enjoy terrific music and tours of the historic Kissam House Museum which includes a newly installed exhibit entitled “Ladies at Leisure: One Hundred Years Ago”. For questions or further information please phone 631-427-7045 extension 403.