The Huntington Arts Council invites students to submit work that is inspired by a Halloween theme – be it dark, light-hearted or just plain scary!

JUROR:
Tonito Valderrama is an international exhibiting environment artist and educator who taught at C.W. Post’s Hillwood Art Museum, Heckscher Museum of Art and in school districts throughout the island. Tonito’s works have been selected by venues such as the Main Street Petite Gallery, Tilles Center, Heckscher Museum of Art, Suffolk County Legislature Building, Suffolk Community College, Humes Japanese Stroll Garden and more. “Art lives in the elements of all living things and is communicated through the universal language of creative expression”, Tonito Valderrama.

AWARDS:
Prizes of $50 each will be awarded in two age categories: Senior Division (grades 9-12) and Junior Division (grades 8 and below).

ELIGIBILITY:
Open to all student artists. Artwork must be available October 30-November 5, 2013.

ENTRY FEE:
$25 for two entries, additional entries are $5 each. Due to the limited wall space of our Main St. Petite Gallery there may not be more than 2 pieces of one artist’s work selected.

ENTRIES:
High resolution digital images formatted for PC (4 x 6 @ 300 dpi) or photos of artwork. (No artwork previously shown in the Main Street Petite Gallery will be accepted). Accompanying entry form must also be included.

MEDIUM:
Any medium, including but not limited to, acrylic, oil, watercolor, pastel, drawings, collage sculpture, photography and mixed media.

SIZE:
Size limitation 28” x 36” including frame. Sculpture must be stand alone pieces no taller than 6 ft.

CALENDAR:
All entries (CD or photo only) must be received by the Huntington Arts Council, 213 Main St., Huntington, by Friday October 4, 2013. Entries will not be returned.

FINALISTS:
Artists will be notified of results by October 11, 2013 and if selected asked to drop off their work on Wednesday, October 30th between 9am and 5pm. All artwork must be properly framed ready to hang, clearly labeled on the back with name, address, phone number, email, title and price. If sculpture is smaller than a stand-alone work, artist must provide the pedestal. Opening reception is Friday, November 1, 2013 from 6-8pm

LIABILITY & INSURANCE:
All work is insured while in the possession of the Huntington Arts Council.

For Additional Information contact: Florence Dallari 631-271-8423 ext 12 or fdallari@huntingtonarts.org