Dear Parents and Students,

Events, such as Homecoming, make High School experiences memorable. They also strengthen social ties and foster cooperation. We would love to see parents there. We invite all our families to participate in this type of High School activity. As a parent, please consider joining in the parade as well as the football game (see schedule of events on reverse side of this letter).

It is important to all of us that students enjoy school events and come away from them with positive experiences. The guidelines enclosed with this letter are intended to help all students reach the desired goal of having a good time while living up to the expectation of civil and safe behavior. I ask that you discuss them with your son/daughter and that you support the guidelines intended to promote safety.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Carmela Leonardi, Ph.D.
