Woodhull Intermediate School

2013 Academic Awards

Lions Club Award
Recipients: Katie Burton and Jack Stewart
This award recognizes students who have demonstrated outstanding qualities of good citizenship, high moral character and service to Woodhull Intermediate School.

President’s Award
Recipients: Jeffrey Germain, Nathaly Torres, Nicholas Otto and Ariana Streib
This award recognizes students that have demonstrated high motivation, initiative, integrity, intellectual depth, leadership qualities and outstanding attendance and exceptional judgment.

New York State Comptroller’s Achievement Award
Recipient: Mia Nitekman
This award recognizes a student that has demonstrated strong work habits and made achievements in all academic subject areas during the school year as well as exhibited the qualities of respect and caring for others.

This year’s recipient has demonstrated leadership potential and a commitment to the Woodhull School community. She has participated in school activities, the music program and after school clubs.

Triple “C” Awards
Recipient: Eli Mollineaux
This award recognizes the “Character, Courage and Commitment” of New York’s hard working students. This student shows commitment to learning, to his community and to his fellow classmates.

Western Suffolk BOCES - Denise O’Malley Memorial Award
Recipient: Jeraine Nieves-Morales
This award recognizes the student who possesses and represents the following qualities and values: Perseverance and effort, empathy for others, selflessness, pursuit of individual excellence, striving to reach one’s potential and overcoming personal challenges.