Superintendent of Schools

March 4, 2014

Dear Students/Staff/Parents:

Due to the loss of instructional time resulting from the closing of schools, please note the following changes to the current year's calendar:

School will be in session on Monday, April 21 and Friday, May 23, 2014.

If there are no further closures, no additional vacation days will be removed.

Please note that should there be any additional weather events this winter that force the closing of schools, additional adjustments will be made as follows: Monday, April 14 will become an instructional day and Friday June 27 will be inserted as a conference day (staff only).

Please accept my gratitude for your support and cooperation.

Very truly yours,

James W. Polansky
