About this Factbook

This factbook provides a map of all the Senate and Assembly districts in New York State. These maps contain the school districts that lie within the legislative district and key fiscal data about each school district. School districts are color coded by their 2008 need/resource capacity category. This is a measure developed by NYSED to assess educational need in relation to the ability of school districts to raise revenues locally.

How to view the Factbook

The book is designed for ease of viewing and reading each district's map and data together. You will find the map on the top half (even pages) and corresponding data below (odd pages). See preview at right.

The school districts are ordered alphabetically.

If the district contains only a Big 5 district, it is listed on the corresponding Big 5 district page instead.

New York State Public School Districts by Need/Resource Capacity Categories

School Districts by Need/Resource Categories

- NYC & Big 4
- High - Urb/Sub
- High - Rural
- Average
- Low

School districts are classified by 2008 need/resource capacity category, a measure developed by NYSED to assess educational need based on student poverty in relation to the ability of the district to raise revenues locally.
