Director's Notes

Every year it's the same question—why did you pick the show that is being performed this year? Chicago seemed like a no brainer—in this day and age of undeserved celebrity, fake news, and media manipulation we are treated to a satirical look at each one of these ideas looking through the lens of the merry murderesses Velma and Roxie, and their attorney Billy Flynn, who is clever, unscrupulous, and able to bend people and the media to his will. At times touching, at times funny, and at times maddening we bear witness to humanity being told what to think instead of thinking for themselves. Chicago reminds us that we are subject to hearing only one side of a story and if repeated long enough and loud enough we might believe it—it's up to us to decide for ourselves what has merit and what does not instead of falling prey to those who would like us to bend to their will. Don't give in to the old razzle dazzle, except for tonight, of course. Enjoy the show!
