Hon - or to Hunt - ing-ton Now that our tasks are done.

The first system of musical notation is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The lyrics are: "Hon - or to Hunt - ing-ton Now that our tasks are done." The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with accompaniment in the bass staff.

We will re - mem - ber the days we spent with in these halls and

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. The lyrics are: "We will re - mem - ber the days we spent with in these halls and". The melody continues in the treble staff, with accompaniment in the bass staff.

e'en though we now must part. Loy - al to ev - rey heart. Oh!

The third system of musical notation continues the piece. The lyrics are: "e'en though we now must part. Loy - al to ev - rey heart. Oh!". The melody continues in the treble staff, with accompaniment in the bass staff.

We of Hunt - ing - ton we will be true!

The fourth and final system of musical notation concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "We of Hunt - ing - ton we will be true!". The melody continues in the treble staff, with accompaniment in the bass staff. The system ends with a double bar line.

Honor to Huntington
Now that our tasks are done.
We will remember the days we spent
within these halls,
And e'en though we now must part
Loyal in every heart,
We of Huntington
We will be true.
